Asian Studies in Business and Economics Programme

The ASBE programme is initiated within the context of the overall internationalisation strategy of the Faculty of Business Administration and Economics, Paderborn University and was founded in 2005.

ASBE for Outgoing Students

ASBE for outgoings is a selective study programme at Master level with particular focus on Asia. Graduate students of the Faculty can apply for this 3-semester comprehensive programme each year in November.

- Intensive language courses
- Literature and media forum
- Workshop "Intercultural competence"
- Research and discussion seminars

1. Preparatory phase (Paderborn)

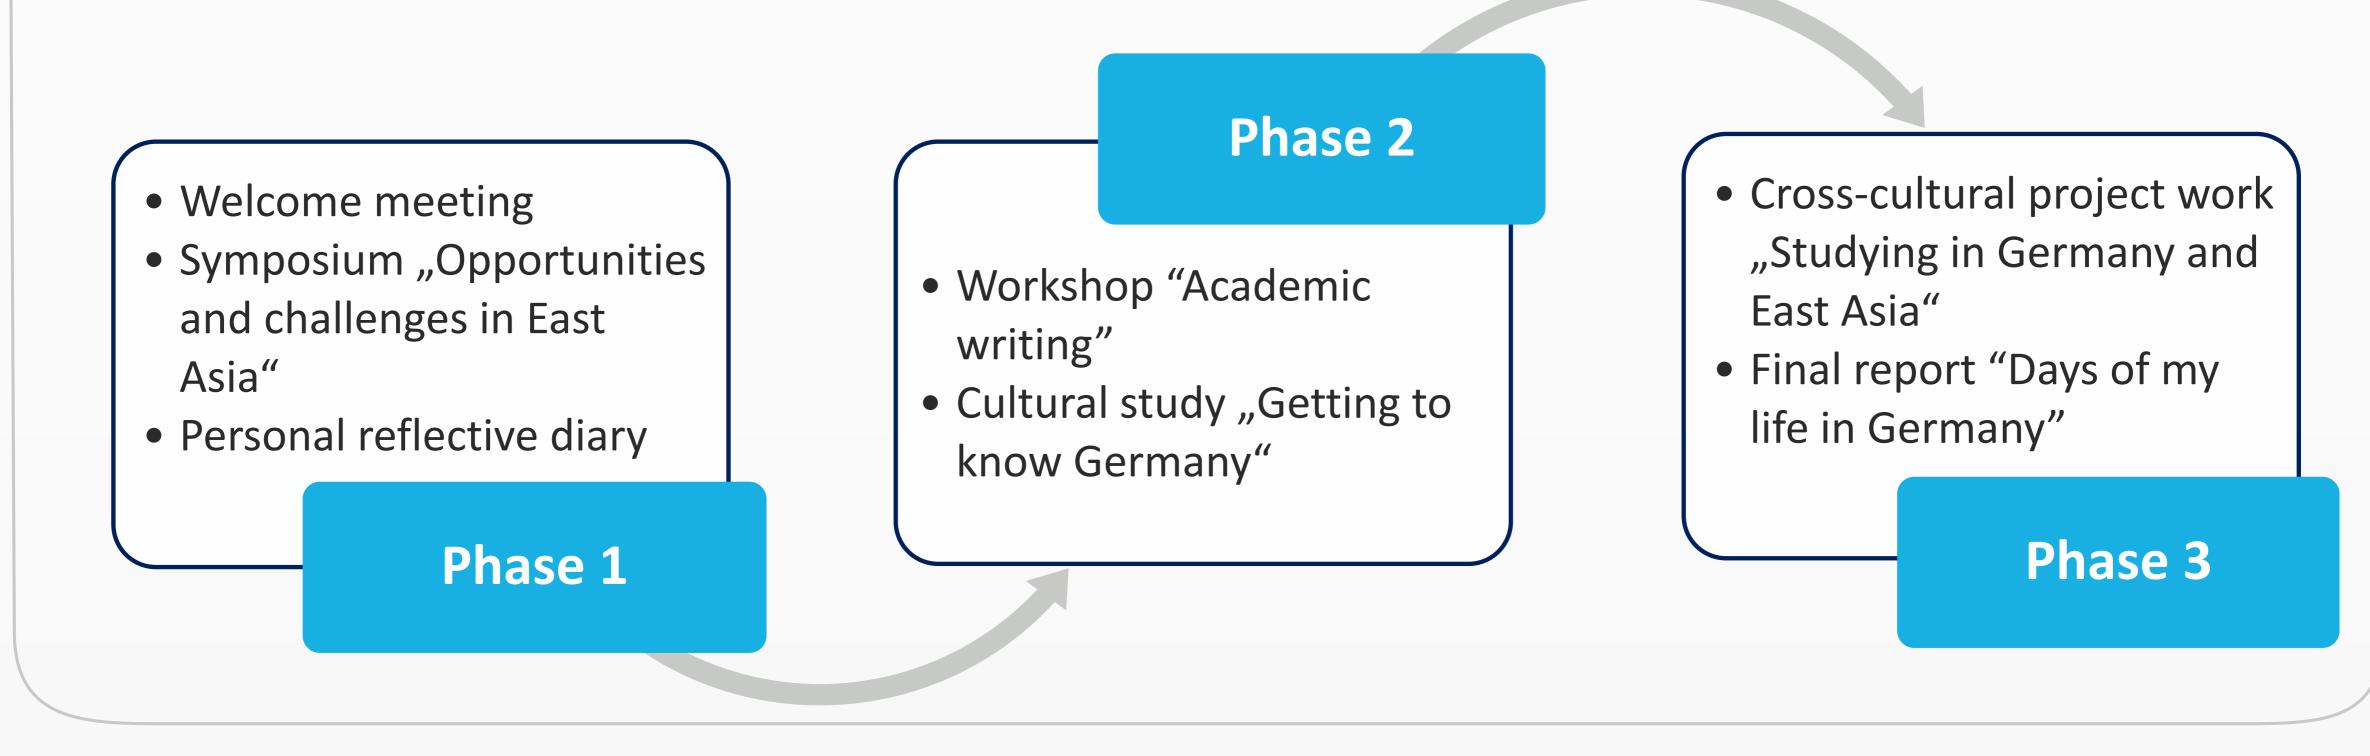

2. Study-abroad phase (Asia)

- Subject courses in English or German
- Culture and language courses
- Project work
- Personal reflective diary

- Country-specific workshop
- Group reflection & evaluation
- Presentations of projects
- Final celebration
 - 3. Follow-up phase (Paderborn)

ASBE for Incoming Students

Asian exchange students from partner universities can participate in the supportive mentoring course every winter term.

The ASBE programme is established within the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) programme "International Study and Training Partnerships (ISAP)" and still runs within this framework.

