Neue BA-MA Themen SS2019 Gilroy

1) Problems and Developments in the Core Theory of International Business
2) Can a firm find the balance between openness and secrecy?
   Towards a theory of an optimum level of disclosure
3) New trade theory versus old trade policy: a continuing enigma
4) The loanable funds fallacy: exercises in the analysis of disequilibrium
5) The take-over market for privately held companies: the German experience
6) Are developing countries catching up?
7) Income distribution and current account imbalances
8) Global liquidity and monetary policy autonomy: an examination of open-economy policy constraints
9) The global concentration of wealth
10) Stock Flow Consistent Macroeconomics
11) Irving Fisher's debt-deflation theory: its relevance to current conditions
12) Central banking in the twenty-first century
13) Conundrums of the representative agent
14) The aggregate production function is NOT neoclassical
15) Beyond capital fundamentalism: Harrod, Domar and the history of development economics
16) Multinational enterprises, service outsourcing and regional structural change
17) Beyond entry mode choice: Explaining the conversion of joint ventures into wholly owned subsidiaries in the People's Republic of China
18) The Efficiency (Contradictions) of Multinational Corporations
19) Organizational Forms of Multinational Enterprise
20) Setting global standards: Guidelines for creating codes of conduct in multinational corporations
21) Paul Romer’s Radical Idea: Charter Cities
22) Circular economy: is it enough?
23) The Circular Economy–A new sustainability paradigm?
24) The circular economy: A new development strategy in China
25) The world trading system: Challenges ahead